GENERAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOUR STUDENT VISA APPLICATION

1. GENUINE TEMPORARY ENTRANT AND GENUINE STUDENT GUIDELINES

All education providers must have strategies and arrangements in place to manage the immigration risk of their students and prospective students. The Department of Immigration and Border Protection in Australia will assess each application for a student visa and the applicant's intention to stay temporarily in Australia using some or all the criteria below, and any other relevant matters that may be either beneficial or unfavourable to the applicant.

Assessing the Genuine Temporary Entrant Criterion for Student Visa Applications

The applicant's circumstances in their home country

- The applicant's economic situation may be an incentive not to return home
- Political and civil unrest in the applicant's home country
- The extent of the applicant's personal ties to their home country
- Whether the applicant has sound reasons for not studying in their home country if a similar program is available
- Military service commitments in the applicant's home country

The applicant's potential circumstances in Australia

- The extent of the applicant's ties with Australia which may provide a strong incentive to remain in Australia – family and community ties
- Any evidence that the student visa program is being used to circumvent the intentions of the migration program
- Whether the student visa is being used to maintain ongoing residence
- The applicant's knowledge of living in Australia
- Whether the primary and secondary applicants have entered into a relationship of concern (a contrived relationship for the purpose of applying for a student visa)

The applicant's immigration history

- Including visa and travel history for Australia and other countries
- Previous visa applications for Australia or other countries
- Previous travels to Australia or other countries
- Previous visa refusals and the reasons why

The value of the program to the applicant's future

- The program's consistency with the applicant's current education level
- Whether the program will assist the applicant to gain employment or improve employment prospects in their home country
- Relevance of the program to the applicant's past or future employment in their home country or a third country
- Remuneration and career prospects in the applicant's home country or a third country to be gained from the proposed program of study

If the applicant is a minor

- The intentions of a parent, legal guardian or spouse of the applicant

2. FINANCIAL CAPACITY

How will you fund your studies in Australia?

SELF/FAMILY FUNDED (Please provide one of the following):

1. Evidence of funds to cover travel to Australia and 12 months' living, course and (for school aged dependants) schooling costs for the student and accompanying family members,

OR

2. Evidence that you or your sponsor meet the annual income requirement. The annual income option requires students to provide evidence of personal annual income of at least AUD 60,000 for a single student or AUD 70,000 when accompanied by family. The income demonstrated must be of the spouse (who is not travelling with the applicant) or parents. In circumstances where both of parents are working, their combined income can be considered for this requirement. In all cases, the evidence of annual income must be provided in the form of official government documentation, such as a tax assessment;

INCLUDING

3. Evidence that you have genuine access to the funds while in Australia to cover all living and study costs for the duration of your studies. When considering whether the funds will be genuinely available, DIBP will take into account factors including:
 - the nature of the relationship between the applicant and the person who is providing the funds, where applicable; (provide evidence of relationship with the sponsor, financial sponsorship declaration)
 - their income, assets and employment or those of the other person who is providing the funds; (provide any of these if applicable: employment certificate with salary information, recent payslip, business registration certificate)
 - their previous visa history and that of the person providing the funds (copies of applicable passport pages and immigration stamps)

SCHOLARSHIP (Please provide one of the following):

1. A letter of support from Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade or Department of Defence if funded by the Australian Government, or
2. A scholarship letter: the letter should state that the scholarship has been granted for the duration of the program that the applicant has the letter of offer for and state what is to be covered by the scholarship
